

AN ACT
To provide for the call of a Convention.
Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

§ 1. There shall be, at the general election for the members of the General Assembly, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-four, a poll opened, at the several election precincts, for taking the sense of the people of this State upon the expediency of calling a Convention to amend, alter or make a new Constitution of this State.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the judges at the several election precincts in this State, at the election aforesaid, to cause a poll to be opened, which poll shall contain two columns: one to be headed 'Convention,' the other 'no Convention;' and they shall cause the votes of each individual voter to be set in the appropriate columns.

§ 3. All persons qualified, by the Constitution and laws of this State, to vote for members of the General Assembly, shall be entitled to vote for or against said Convention.

§ 4. At the close of said election, at the several election precincts in this State, the judges thereof shall cause an abstract of the votes given, for and against a Convention, to be made out and certified to the clerks of the several county courts in this State, who shall make out an abstract of the votes, given for & against a Convention, in their respective counties, and transmit the same to the Secretary of State in the same manner and with the like restrictions that they are required to certify the votes given for Governor, and Lieutenant Governor.

§ 5. The Secretary shall, on or before the first day of December eighteen hundred and forty-four, make out and deliver to the Governor, a full and complete abstract of the votes given for and against a Convention who shall immediately cause the same to be published in at least two newspapers in this State.

§ 6. If a majority of the votes thus given shall be for a Convention, the Governor shall, in the month of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, order an election to be held at the several places of voting in this State, on the first Monday in August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, to elect delegates to said Convention; which election shall, in all respects, be governed by the existing laws regulating elections; and the persons elected shall, each, receive a certificate thereof accordingly.

§ 7. Each Senatorial district shall and is hereby authorized to elect double the number to serve in said Convention, which said district shall be entitled by law to elect to the Senate of this State at the time of said election; and any person, eligible to a seat in the House of Representatives of this State, shall be eligible to a seat in the Convention.

§ 8. The person who shall be elected, according to the provisions of this act shall, on the third Monday of November, 1845, meet and assemble at the City of Jefferson, in general convention, and shall have power to form and propose a new Constitution for this State.

§ 9. The Convention shall judge its own privileges and elections, and the members thereof shall have all the privileges to which members of the General Assembly are entitled, and shall be allowed the same compensation; and said Convention shall have power to appoint such officers and give them such compensation as may be deemed right, and said compensation shall be obtained in the same manner as the members and officers of the General Assembly are allowed and paid.

§ 10. In cases of contested elections to the convention, the contending candidates shall pursue the same course and be governed by the same rules as are now prescribed by law in contested elections to the Legislature of this State.

§ 11. If a vacancy shall occur in the convention, the same shall be filled in the same manner as prescribed by law for filling vacancies of the Legislature of this State.

§ 12. The constitution formed by the convention shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state; and a copy of the same shall by the Governor, be caused to be published in such manner as said convention shall direct.

§ 13. On the first Monday in August, 1846, at the several election precincts in this State, the judges thereof shall cause two columns to be opened: headed one 'for the constitution,' the other, 'against the constitution;' and they shall cause the vote of each voter to be set in the appropriate column, and certify the votes so given to the clerks of the several county courts, who shall certify the same to the secretary of state, in the same manner and with the like restrictions that they are now required to certify the votes given for Governor and Lieutenant Governor of this State.

§ 14. All qualified voters of this State shall be entitled to vote for or against said constitution.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the Governor to lay before the General Assembly, at their regular session, in the year 1846 the vote for ratifying or rejecting said Constitution; and if it shall appear to the General Assembly, in joint meeting, that a majority of all the votes given have accepted the constitution, they shall, by joint resolution, declare said constitution to be the supreme law of the State, & the former constitution shall be abolished.

§ 16. It shall be the duty of the Governor, in the month of May, 1843, to cause this act to be published in three of the principal newspapers in St. Louis, and in all the other papers published in this State outside St. Louis, which publication shall continue for six successive weeks; the expenses of said printing shall be paid out of the general contingent fund.

This act to take effect from and after its passage.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS.

And a New Discovery in the Newspaper BUSINESS!!

A most important and invaluable discovery has been made by a gentleman of this city, by which newspapers may be printed in their present form, and at the same time, capable of being converted at pleasure into a Magazine form, for preservation.

This grand improvement, which is destined to form a new era in the business, effecting a complete revolution in the art of printing manhood newspapers, will be introduced, by permission of the patentee, into the Philadelphia Saturday Museum, commencing in May next.

In announcing to the friends of the newspaper press throughout the country, a discovery which will add so immensely to the value of newspapers, the publishers of the Saturday Museum, have, also, the proud satisfaction of announcing the complete and triumphant success of their new Family Newspaper. The liberal patronage already secured for this new and popular enterprise, has not only surpassed the most sanguine expectation, but is entirely unprecedented.

IMPROVEMENT IN "THE MUSEUM."

"The Museum" is now so fully and firmly established, that we feel warranted in making some very extensive and important improvements. By the first of May, we shall have completed all our arrangements. We shall have, in the first place, a beautiful, clear and bold type—in the second, a superb smooth and white paper—in the third place, we shall make an ingenious & novel change in the arrangement of the matter—in the fourth place, we shall increase our corps of contributors in all the various departments of a Family Newspaper—in the fifth place, we have secured, at a high salary, the services of EDGAR A. POE, Esq., a gentleman whose high and versatile abilities have always spoken promptly for themselves, and who, after the first of May, will aid us in the editorial conduct of the Journal.

The "Narrative of Townsend's Journey over the Rocky Mountains," one of the most interesting and valuable ever published, is sent to all new subscribers. At its conclusion, our readers will find themselves in possession of a work which alone will be worth double the subscription to the paper. We shall continue, also, of course, the Biographical Sketches and Portraits, which are now exciting so much interest. With these and other features contained, and with the improvements in contemplation, it remains to be seen whether we do not amply fulfill our determination of making the very best Newspaper in America.

Persons wishing to secure six thousand large octavo pages of useful, interesting, and unexpected reading for the select family circle, for the small sum of two Dollars per year—being at the astonishingly low rate of thirty pages for one cent, or equivalent to one hundred and twenty pages for four cents—should send their names in now.

TERMS.—Two Dollars per annum. Three copies for Five Dollars, or sixteen copies for Twenty Dollars, in the extra inducements offered at present for clubbing.

via Pittsburg or Orleans.

THE subscriber will advance in cash 4.50 the market value on Flour shipped direct to the east via Pittsburg, or New Orleans, or will advance 2.25, with the privilege of sale in Orleans, if the market will justify. I will also advance, on Wheat, Lard and Pork. My eastern correspondents are Flour and Grain houses, of long standing, and well acquainted with the market for these staples.

From my Pittsburg correspondents, I have received a tariff of rates on Flour, Lard, &c., to New York via the Pennsylvania canal, which, as the warm season approaches, will justify shipments to New York of Flour and Lard via this quick route. My New York correspondent (at Flour house) writes it is not safe—being liable to sour, to ship Flour from your place via Orleans, after the first of May.

Miss Leslie's Magazine,

OR
The Home Book of Literature, Fashion and Domestic Economy.

EDITED BY MISS E. LESLIE.
Author of "Mrs. Washington Potts," &c., and T. S. Arthur, Author of "Six Nights With the Washingtonians," &c. Embellished with the most exquisite Mezzotint and steel plates and splendid colored plates of the fashions.

The great demand which has existed for the past year, for Godey's Lady's Book, Graham's Magazine, and other kindred publications, has induced the subscriber to present to the public a Monthly Magazine, similar, in its general features, to the popular works referred to, but with some Claims to Attention which they do not possess. For this purpose he has secured the aid of MISS E. LESLIE, universally known as one of the first female writers of the age, and particularly distinguished by her graphic sketches of nature, and her success in illustrating and correcting fashionable follies.

As the writer of various books, and a contributor to Godey's Lady's Book, Graham's Magazine, and other periodicals of high reputation, Miss Leslie has done much to enlighten and entertain the public, and in the Magazine now presented, which bears her name, she will make her eminent talents still more available for the general good. Besides a Series of Nouvellettes, in her own inimitable style, in which, under cover of amusement, some beneficial design will be promoted; she will furnish from her observation, reading and experience, a succession of Essays on embracing general suggestions for the regulation of domestic establishments, hints and reflections useful to housekeepers, practical advice, numerous receipts never before published, and all other things that may be made subservient to the purpose. This department of the Magazine, though no undue space will be allotted to it, is not to be found in any other periodical, and the Publisher is satisfied that it will not be less interesting and valuable than it is novel. As it is the purpose of the Publisher to make the Magazine tributary to useful design, he has made an arrangement with the justly celebrated T. S. ARTHUR, Esq., by which that gentleman will be directly engaged in a joint superintendence, and will bestow his best endeavors, Mr. Arthur will furnish for each number one or more of his

and such other matter as may be adopted to the amusement and improvement of all ages and classes, especially Young Ladies, to whose interests the utmost care will be directed.

Believing that a proper taste in dress is essential to the true development of female gracefulness, a portion of the work will be devoted to an exposition and illustration of the PREVAILING FASHIONS.

This will be strictly and exclusively under the care of Miss Leslie, whose severe taste and ample opportunities of observation, will confer upon whatever receives the stamp of her approbation, a high authority. To enable her to select the newest, latest, and most recherche fashions, the publisher has made arrangements to receive, by the Steamers, the latest issues of Paris and London, and to give the highest possible effect to the modes selected, he has made an arrangement with a celebrated Artist, to compose and modify the group, so as to render them highly effective. He therefore does not hesitate to announce that his will be not only more correctly, but will be executed in a style of greater brilliancy and elegance than any which can be found in any other publication.

Miss Leslie's Magazine will, as will be perceived from what has been stated, be emphatically and it will contain matter especially calculated for Ornament to the Centre Table, interesting reading and conversation in the Drawing Room, and for the Family Fireside; valuable suggestions in the Housekeeper's Department, and pleasing illustrations in the style of Dreams.

The embellishments will be in the first style of the pictorial art. Each number will contain Two Plates; and in the course of the volume there will be presented several superb Mezzotints, of the highest possible elegance and finish.

The contents of Miss Leslie's Magazine will be such as to give it, in this respect, a decided superiority. No mere reverence for name, will induce the editor to admit any article of questionable merit, but every thing admitted will be judged of by its intrinsic worth, and nothing can possibly find a place which will not be calculated to promote the entertainment and edification of its readers.

It will scarcely be credited that a Magazine, such as has been described, can be afforded at the low rate of one dollar and fifty cents per annum, when but a single copy is subscribed for, but, at the risk of considerable loss, the publisher has determined to furnish it for that sum, being just one half the price of the other principal Magazines. Indeed, as will be seen by the foregoing list of offers and premiums, the publisher has elected to repay the large outlay, necessary to be made
